WESTCHESTER'S FORTY UNDER FORTY

GINO BELLO (31)

*Associate Broker
Better Homes and Gardens Rand Realty*

Gino Bello grew up in a middle class neighborhood in the Bronx. As a young man Gino was always taught to work hard for everything you want in life. Gino was determined to keep the American Dream alive. He attended Fordham University and went on to work for one of the big five accounting firms. After about four years, he decided to leave the corporate world and walk into a real estate office not knowing a single person in the industry. Gino's greatest accomplishment was starting from the ground up and building his clientele. Five years later, he is now one of Westchester's top brokers working for Better Homes and Gardens Rand Realty. When working with his clients, Gino's goal is not simply to sell a house, it is to provide a home.
